DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- Claims 1-20 are drawn to a method for the regeneration of transgenic and nontransgenic plants classified in class 435 subclass 410 for example.
- II. Claim 21 is drawn to a transgenic plant classified in class 800 subclass 290 for example.
- III. Claims 22 and 23 are drawn to a method of wounding shoot meristems or primordial for the purpose of Agrobacterium – mediated transformation, classified in class 435 subclass 440 for example.

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the transgenic plant of Group III can be made by a method different from the one specified in Group I. For example, the transgenic plant of Invention II can be made using a regeneration protocol other than the one claimed in Invention I (e.g., U.S. Patent Number 6,420,630)

Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are distinct from one another because the starting material, method steps and end products are different from each other.

Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are distinct from one another because the transgenic plant of Invention II is not required for the wounding method of Invention III and the wounding method of Invention III is not required to produce a transgenic plant of Invention II.

Each of Inventions I-III are capable of being separately made, independently used, and the patentability of one does not render the others obvious or unpatentable.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, fields of search, and classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
